SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA, 30th January, 2019 - Skyfii Limited (ASX:SKF) (Skyfii or the Company), a data analytics and marketing services company, is pleased to announce that it will deploy its SaaS recurring revenue 'IO Platform' services to the City of Fairborn and University of Dayton in the state of Ohio, USA, on a 5-year initial contract.

The contract is being delivered in partnership with North American Skyfii reseller Cincinnati Bell, an integrated communications solutions provider that delivers fiber networks, including high-speed internet, video, voice and data, to residential and business customers.

Cincinnati Bell is providing high-speed WiFi connectivity to the City of Fairborn's business district and University of Dayton. The deployment of Skyfii's Guest WiFi and marketing services through its 'IO Platform' will provide a critical insights tool for city and campus managers, and businesses within the City of Fairborn's business district and at the University of Dayton. Locations include Spark Fairborn, a startup incubator, and University of Dayton Arena.

Cincinnati Bell and Skyfii have partnered on similar projects in the City of Cincinnati, and City of Covington, Kentucky.

"Having previously deployed services for Smart City initiatives in partnership with Cincinnati Bell, it is extremely pleasing to carry the success of the project to a neighbouring city and university arena," said Wayne Arthur, Chief Executive Officer of Skyfii.
